Associate, KLINEDINST PC

Lori M. Schumacher is an associate in Klinedinst's San Diego law office. A native of San Diego, she obtained her Juris Doctor from Boston College Law School in May 2006. During law school, Lori served as Editor of the UCC-Reporter Digest and was responsible for revising weekly annotations on commercial caselaw for publication. Lori received her bachelor's degree in political science from Stanford University in 2000 where she was a scholarship athlete, and a section editor for the Stanford Daily. Lori studied economics, politics and international affairs at the Stanford Center in Santiago, Chile. After finishing her undergraduate degree, Lori received her master's degree in Sociology with an emphasis in Organizations, Business and the Economy from Stanford in 2001.

While attending law school, Lori was a legal intern for Judge Jeffrey B. Barton in San Diego Superior Court and worked as a summer associate for a civil defense firm in San Francisco. Before law school, Lori was Legislative Director for Massachusetts State Senator Brian A. Joyce and worked as a Program Officer for The Mentor Group, a legal-economic think tank in the Boston area. In addition, she had the opportunity to work as a Commercial Assistant for Department of Commerce at the U.S. Embassy in Brussels, Belgium.
